

Le Sueur County Old Settlers formally organized on February, 25, 1926. A plaque by the cabin door pays tribute to 58 founders. In August 1978, the Old Settlers incorporated as a Minnesota non-profit corporation and merged with Le Sueur County Historical Society in 2011.

The exhibit features pioneer photos and artifacts they used to prepare their homestead and build a life on the frontier.

Sources for this brochure include History of the Minnesota Valley by Rev. Edward Neill, Le Center Leader, Le Sueur Center Leader, Le Sueur Sentinel newspapers, and John Zimmerman notes. Photos courtesy of K. Burns, Le Sueur County and Minnesota Historical Societies. The front cover features Lexington township from a wall map of Le Sueur County published in 1880 by Warner and Foote.
